BUZZ Around Cedarbrook...

January Trivia

1. Birthstone is Red Garnet
2. January was named after the god of transitions.
3. January is "donate blood" month.
4. The name for January comes from the Roman God, Janus, who is always depicted with two heads. He uses one head to look back on the year before and the other head to look forward into the new year.
5. In Pasadena, CA, there has been a Rose Parade held every year from 1890 to 2020. It has been broadcasted worldwide and has been viewed in over 100 countries around the globe. It will air on Jan. 1, 2022 at 11am(EST).
6. One of the most influential events in U.S. history happened in January. On January 1, 1892, Ellis Island opened, allowing for the immigration of over 200 million people.

Happy New Year!!

When reading the Sunshine News, find the

And count how many you see!
Good luck!

December 31st is the perfect time for a party & a cheer

Because January 1st starts the New Year
It will be cold & we'll have lots of snow
It's the time of the year when the north winds blow

But living here, we are the lucky bunch
We don't even have to go out to have lunch
Karen & her crew are busy cooking for us
And when it's our birthday they make quite a fuss

Being a resident here, you get good care
And you're free of worry & have nothing to fear

Programs & activities are plenty if you like to move

So get up & go, get into the GROOVE!

So Christmas is really over? It is by the calendar but not in my memory. It is one holiday that we look forward to for a long time, and before you know it, it's over. But the memories will live on for some time and we might have gifts that stir up some memories too. But now we're in the year 2022 if you can believe it! And I still have vivid memories of 2021 and I'm sure you do too. Maybe we have decisions to make that will change the way we do things for the better. Now that's a new year's resolution right there!

HAVE FUN COLORING THIS NEW YEAR PICTURE BELOW!

“Happy New Year” is a cliché, and the person who says it wishes that the New Year will bring better health, fortune, or prosperity for someone. It’s a phrase to sweep out the difficulties we might have suffered in the old year, and to usher in the new year with hope and opportunities.

When we say, “What’s new?” it’s a casual greeting to someone used to politely (and sometimes superficially) inquire about what is happening in their life. It is also used to indicate that something is unsurprising because it is standard or commonplace as in “So, what else is new?”

In Ecclesiastes 1:9, is the origin of the common phrase, “There’s nothing new under the sun.” The verse reads: “What has been will be again,/ what has been done will be done again;/ there is nothing new under the sun.” It is often used as a weary complaint against life’s monotony. When Solomon wrote the statement, he was emphasizing the cyclic nature of human life and the emptiness of living for gain.

To say there is nothing new under the sun does not ignore inventions or advances in technology; rather, these innovations do not amount to any basic change in the world. But, from the larger perspective in the cycle of life, human nature has remained and always will remain the same.

A video game, that’s become popular, places a hundred players on a virtual island to compete until one player remains. Whenever a player is eliminated, they can then continue to watch through that player’s vantage point. A journalist notes, “When you step into another player’s shoes and inhabit their point of view, the emotional register... shifts from self-preservation to... communal solidarity.... You begin to feel invested in the stranger who, not too long ago, did you in.”

Something new can happen in our lives whenever we open ourselves to see another’s experiences, looking beyond our own vision and encountering another’s pain, fear, or hopes.

A new creation, is a person who has been transformed by God, and described in 2 Corinthians 5:17: “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, they are a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!”

To understand the “new creation”, first we must grasp that it is in fact a creation, something created by God. John 1:13 tells us that this new birth is brought about by the will of God. We do not inherit the new nature or decide to re-create ourselves anew. Neither did God simply clean up our old nature; He creates something entirely fresh and unique within those who believe in Jesus. The new creation is completely new, brought about from nothing, just as the whole universe was created by God.

Next, “old things have passed away.” The “old” refers to things that were part of our old nature— natural pride, enjoyment of sin, reliance on works, and our former opinions, habits, and passions. Most significantly, what we loved erroneously has passed away, especially the supreme love of self.

Then the new has come, the newborn person now delights in the things of God and dislikes the things of the world and the flesh. Their purposes, feelings, desires, and understandings are fresh and different. They now perceive things differently. There are new feelings toward all people— a new kind of love toward family and friends, a new compassion never before felt for enemies, and a new love for all people. The things we once wrongly desired, we now detest. The sin we once held onto, we now desire to put away.

In other words, life involves more than just what happens “under the sun.” And in the New Year we want to live for God and His purpose, which is the goal of this new life. So, what’s new with you?

CEDARBROOK VOLUNTEERS ARE VERY IMPORTANT PEOPLE

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Celebrating the holidays would not be complete without including our Volunteers; who are such an important part of our Cedarbrook family. We celebrate you!!

You give the most precious gifts of all...time and yourself. Everyone at Cedarbrook appreciates your many hours of caring and dedication. You bring laughter, happiness, and comfort to so many. We hope that the happiness you bring to others will be yours at this special time of year. Our volunteers work with a heart full of kindness; they work selflessly to benefit others. This is what makes them so very special.

Volunteers are always needed. Here are a few ways you can help.

- Become a member of our auxiliary. This wonderful group raises money to purchase special things for our residents throughout the year. It's easy to join and fun to be a part of this amazing and important group. It takes wonderful people like you to keep it successful.
- Help our residents enjoy a bus trip shopping at local stores. This is generally a 2 hour activity.
- Assist with transporting our residents to the in-house beauty shop, activities, entertainment, etc.

Help our staff provide fun on-unit activities for our resident. This is generally a 1 to 2 hour activity.

A great big THANK YOU from all of us at Cedarbrook for the work that you do to help us and our residents. Stay safe, happy and hopeful that this New Year will be the best year ever! Please keep in touch and let us know how you would like to volunteer. We are also accepting student volunteers over 13 years old.

All volunteers must be vaccinated.

"A little smile, a word of cheer, a bit of love from someone near, a little gift from one held dear. Best wishes for the coming year."

The Best Classic Chili Recipe

The Best Classic Chili - This traditional chili recipe is just like mom used to make with ground beef, beans, and a simple homemade blend of chili seasonings.

Prep Time 5 mins

Cook Time 25 mins

Total Time 30 mins

Servings: 6 servings

Ingredients

- 1 Tablespoon olive oil
- 1 medium yellow onion -diced
- 1 pound 90% lean ground beef
- 2 1/2 Tablespoons chili powder
- 2 Tablespoons ground cumin
- 2 Tablespoons granulated sugar
- 2 Tablespoons tomato paste
- 1 Tablespoon garlic powder
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cayenne pepper* -optional
- 1 1/2 cups beef broth
- 1 (15 oz.) can petite diced tomatoes
- 1 (16 oz.) can red kidney beans, drained and rinsed
- 1 (8 oz.) can tomato sauce

M'M! M'M! GOOD!

Instructions

1. Add the olive oil to a large soup pot and place it over medium-high heat for two minutes. Add the onion. Cook for 5 minutes, stirring occasionally.
2. Add the ground beef to the pot. Break it apart with a wooden spoon. Cook for 6-7 minutes, until the beef is browned, stirring occasionally.
3. Add the chili powder, cumin, sugar, tomato paste, garlic powder, salt, pepper, and optional cayenne. Stir until well combined.
4. Add the broth, diced tomatoes (with their juice), drained beans, and tomato sauce. Stir well.
5. Bring the liquid to a low boil. Then, reduce the heat (low to medium-low) to gently simmer the chili, uncovered, for 20-25 minutes, stirring occasionally.
6. Remove the pot from the heat. Let the chili rest for 5-10 minutes before serving.

“Birthdays”

When you are a child, excitement is having a party full of friends and family. You enjoy presents to play with and share. But you really enjoy the treats, cake, and ice cream and the blowing out the candles too!! Balloons and streamers, a clown, a magician, or a puppet show! These are all a child's fun memories!

Now there comes a time when you are young ladies and gentlemen. You enjoy money, games, and gadgets, trinkets and pretty cool things to wear. Dancing, friends and parties is what is on their minds.

When you become adults, you just want money, computers, video games, sports, and lots of quiet time!

Now when you are in your 50's and 60's, all you want is security, and bigger toys to play with like computers/gaming and sports TV.

When you are in the golden years, 70's, 80's, 90's, 100's, birthdays become a milestone of birthday memories. They are kept in albums and scrapbooks to reflect back on.

And when you reach the 100 mark, there are many stories with silver linings. Wisdom and advice is always greatly shared. And appreciated!

Best wishes and God's blessings!
May you all live a long blessed life!

Willie Nelson was 85 years old and considering putting out another musical album. Instead of “I’m on the Road Again”, it will be “I’m on the Commode Again”!!

A lady got on an elevator and a man followed her in. She said T.G.I.F.— he replied S.H.I.T. She sarcastically said “I said, Thank God It’s Friday”. He said “Sorry Honey, It’s Thursday.”

Be Yourself! Everyone else is taken.
