WELCOME HOME

When they came home from "Nam."

There was no welcome home.

They did not talk about "Nam."

They wanted to be left alone.

We gave them a wall with their fallen buddies names,

And said "welcome home."

We hung our heads in shame.

When you see a Vietnam Vet, shake his hand,

And say, "Welcome Home."

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Question: What does it mean to love? What does it mean to love someone when they don't love you back?
What does it mean to really love one another?

Hello residents, families, staff and friends of Cedarbrook. It is my hope and prayer that today's letter encourages each of your hearts as you continue to allow God to speak to each of you in his own special way as he sees fit. I'd like to draw your attention to a very special topic called "Command to Love One Another as Christ Loved us." Scripture tells us according to the gospel of John 3:16 that "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son..." Understand that love equals sacrifice and if we want to truly love the way God commands us, then we need to make the ultimate sacrifice and that means we all must die to our mortal flesh. Let me share with you all three types of love that is found in the Bible. The first one is called:

1. Eros Love - is the Greek term which actually means desire and longing. This kind of love is associated with lustful love. Eros love is based on the strong feeling we have against one another and it usually develops during the 1st stage of a romantic relationship.

God created physical attraction between a man and a woman, but He never intended for it to be selfish. He created "desire and longing" which makes up lustful love which is crucial in any marriage. Since this type of love is mostly based on self-benefit, many people tend to fall out of love if they are not happy with the marriage.

2. Philos Love - Now this kind of love is like the one you have for a companion or pal. It refers to loving one another just like your brother or sister. This love is for a pal who is really close and dear to us and it is characterized by various different shared experiences between two people. In fact, this is kind of love that many Christians tend to practice towards one another, and although "philos" love is really wonderful, it is not that reliable, since it can end up souring at times as we have all experienced at some point in our lives.

3. Agape Love - Now this kind of love is a special term which represents the "divine-love" of the Lord towards His Son Jesus Christ, the human beings and all believers. This is the best of three types of love in the Bible, in fact Jesus himself showed this type of divine love to His Father in Heaven and humanity.

Agape love is the love that God commanded all believers to have for everyone whether he or she is a believer or not.

- Agape love should never be determined by our feelings; it is more of a set of behaviors or actions. With agape love, you do not have to actually feel it for you to give, which means that you can be able to show love without feeling anything at all. At times, feelings can follow after showing this kind of love.

What does this all mean? It means that if we all reevaluate our way of loving one another according to God's way, we would come to a greater understanding that life in which God created and intended it to be will give us all a greater fulfillment in experiencing his 'Agape Love' in every aspect of our life according to His perfect divine will. You will begin to experience the power and transformation like no other. You will come to the Spiritual knowledge that you met with God because you allowed His Son Jesus Christ to touch your heart.

I implore you all "Do not let your heart be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me" (John 14:1).

May God bless you all and may your hearts be filled with great joy and gladness as you put your total trust in your creator.

Pastor Anthony (Tony) Jones

EMPLOYEE PET OF THE MONTH

Name of employee and department...

Kelly Menichiello- Life Enrichment

Type of animal/ breed...

Dog- Frenchie

How old is your pet?

Rocco is 7 years old.

Pet's name, how did you come up with it?

Rocco. My daughter picked it.

She wanted a "tough" name for him.

Are there any nicknames for your pet?

Rock, Bubba, Baby boy, and Panyo.

How and when did you choose your pet?

I found an ad online for puppies. When we went to meet Rocco, we found out they were just going to use him for breeding. We decided to take him home and keep him from just being a stud dog.

Does your pet have any special tricks?

His special trick is saving me from bugs. If I tell Rocco I see a "buggy," he goes after it and eats it! He is also very good at just plain ignoring me.

Funniest memory of your pet...

One day he just jumped in the shower with me, proving that he really has to be with me wherever I am.

Does your pet have any bad/ naughty Habits that drive you crazy?

Jumping on people because he's too excited.

Rocco is also not a very good listener. But his worst habit is passing gas. It's something with the breed. But he is known to clear a room!

Does your pet have a favorite toy or treat?

He loves blueberries. He must love all his toys, because he destroys them. Rocco does love his Bully Sticks.

Fun facts about your pet or the breed...

Frenchies have the famous "bat ears", which is funny, because Rocco doesn't listen very well. Also, because of their mushed face they are loud snorers. Finally, it's a known fact that they are a very gassy breed, which we know first hand!

MEMORIES OF PAST FOURTH OF JULY

July the Fourth is a fun filled day
All the kids get to jump & play.
It's a day that families spend together
Catching up on the news of each other, not the weather.
The moms all sit together & learn the family gossip
While the dads play quoits & every now and then take a sip.
Beer was a favorite on a hot sunny day
If the kids were at a creek, there they would stay.
The older men folk sit in chairs on the grass
Spinning tales of when they were young & after a special lass.
Pappy winked at Granny with a smile on his face
She winked back as they remember what took place.
As the daylight began to fade tired kids settled down
Only to jump up again when sparklers were passed around.
Now it was dark & the first big boom
Left everyone know fireworks at the Park would be soon.
Kids cuddled in Mom & Dad's laps
And Ooed & Aahed & happily clapped.
But all too soon after a series of big booms
Meant the big day was over & time to head home to their bedrooms.

In My Heart

I thought of you today.
But that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday.
And days before that too.
I think of you in silence.
I often speak your name.
Now all I have are memories.
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is my keepsake.
With which I'll never part.
God has you in his keeping.
I have you in my heart.

RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

Karen Snyder - A Life of Service and Dedication

Cedarbrook is proud to shine this month's Resident Spotlight on Karen Snyder, whose life has been defined by compassion, hard work, and service to others.

Karen was born in Coplay, Pennsylvania, and raised in a close-knit household with her sister, mother, stepfather, and grandmother. Inspired by a desire to care for others, she pursued her education at Allentown Nursing School and began a fulfilling career as an LPN at Allentown Hospital.

During her time at the hospital, Karen met a patient named William. The two quickly formed a bond, fell in love, and later married. Their shared determination and entrepreneurial spirit led them to start a unique business specializing in sand scaping and painting—using sand to transform outdoor spaces. This successful venture allowed them to purchase a farm, where they raised animals, including pigs and Karen's personal favorite: Clydesdale horses. Together, they built a rich and fulfilling life, including raising their daughter.

Karen has called Cedarbrook home for the past seven years, and her dedication to community service remains as strong as ever. She volunteers countless hours to support the resident community, serving as secretary of the Resident Council and Vice President of the Auxiliary. Twice a week, she helps sell candy bars to raise funds for activities and improvements. She also lends her artistic talents to the cause, creating intricate diamond art pieces and selling them to support the Auxiliary's efforts.

Karen's contributions don't stop there - she also tends to the building's plants, adding a touch of life and care wherever she goes. Her generosity, leadership, and kind spirit make her an invaluable part of the Cedarbrook family.

Thank you, Karen, for your lifelong commitment to caring for others and for all you continue to do for the Cedarbrook community!

1/3 Cup chopped pecans or peanuts (your preference)
1 (10 oz.) jar maraschino cherries, drained & patted dry with a paper towel

HERE ARE SOME FUN FACTS ABOUT BANANA SPLITS

- Inventor: David "Doc" Strickler, a pharmacist's apprentice, is credited with inventing the banana split while working at a drug store in Latrobe, Pennsylvania.
- Early Popularity: The banana split gained popularity among students at St. Vincent College, located near the pharmacy.
- Traditional Toppings: The original banana split featured three scoops of ice cream (vanilla, chocolate, and strawberry), topped with pineapple, strawberry, and chocolate sauce, whipped cream, nuts, and a cherry.
- "Boat" Dish: The banana split is traditionally served in a long dish called a "boat," which was specifically designed for the dessert.
- Declining Popularity: While it was a huge hit in the early 20th century, the banana split's popularity declined after the 1950s, partly due to the rise of soft serve and other desserts.
- World Record: Australia holds the record for the longest banana split, measuring over 8 kilometers. Which is almost 5 miles long.
