AUXILIARY "WISHES" SPOTLIGHT

With D7 resident Nancy Bahr

Nancy has always believed that animals have special way of understanding people. As a lifelong animal lover, she found comfort in their quiet companionship—the soft purr of a cat, the eager wag of a dog’s tail, the gentle presence that asked for nothing more than kindness in return.

So, when she was given the chance to spend a day doing something meaningful, her wish was simple: she wanted to visit a local animal shelter and spend time with the animals who need it most.

From the moment Nancy entered the shelter, she felt at home. The air buzzed with energy—dogs barking in greeting, cats watching curiously from their perches, volunteers moving about with care and purpose. Nancy didn’t hesitate. Her day unfolded in small, beautiful moments. She admired all the dogs and their colors and hearing them bark. In the cat room, she let kittens climb into her lap, their tiny paws and playful antics bringing her endless joy. One shy cat, tucked away in a corner, slowly warmed up to Nancy’s gentle presence—by the end of her visit, it had curled up beside her, purring contentedly.

For Nancy, it wasn’t just about spending time with animals—it was about giving them a sense of comfort, even if only for a day. Many of them were waiting for homes, for someone to choose them, to love them. Nancy made sure each one she met felt seen. Nancy had given them more than attention—she had given them connection.

As the day came to an end, Nancy said her goodbyes with a full heart. It was hard to leave, but she carried something with her: the memory of wagging tails, soft fur, and the quiet understanding shared between her and the animals.

Her wish had been simple, but its impact was lasting—not just for her, but for every animal she touched that day.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

I love the psalms, especially Psalm 27, because they teach us that prayer is personal, that it is simply talking to God as if we would a loved one or a close friend. God is holy and far above us, but God is also present with us. My mother used to say, "God is never so far as to be near," meaning that God is so completely close to us that even nearness is far away for God. To put it plainly, we live every moment in God's presence, because that is what God wants. In just speaking to God, whether aloud or in our heart, God is listening, because He is nearer than we can understand or imagine.

In a beautiful reflection on Psalm 27, Pastor Agnes Norfleet relates the images in the psalm to the ancient Celtic belief in what they called "thin places," or places where a person feels close to the presence of God. The Celts were the ancient peoples of Ireland, Scotland, and Wales. For the pre-Christian Celts, the "thin places" were often shorelines, rivers, and wells, sources of water that came from a deep, mysterious place. As the Celts became Christian, they applied this sense of the holiness of God to an awareness of His presence in a place or in a moment of the day.

Norfleet explains that it is not the physical place itself that is holy, but that the place brings us to remember God's presence. Think of the experiences or places that make you feel close to God: a garden, a church sanctuary, a starry sky, a sleeping infant, a close conversation with someone who understands you. One Sunday, years ago, I stood at the back of the sanctuary of my church, at the people who were gathering in the pews, young and old, greeting each other, and said to God in my heart: yes, here You are, present among these people!

Norfleet points out that in the first verses David calls God "my light." This is the only place in the Old Testament where God is described as my light, my very own personal light. And in those same first verses, David also describes a very real and familiar sense of fear and danger, but at the same time still expresses trust in God as his "stronghold" and "salvation." We relate to David as he faces fear with trust in God. Even times of fear are times of calling to mind the presence of God, of it being a "thin place" where we can feel close to God as we cry out to Him.

David also speaks to God of the moments of gazing upon His beauty, of seeking His face, and of knowing that he will be in the presence of God in the land of the living, here and now, and will see God's goodness through the eyes of faith. He speaks aloud of a close and personal relationship with God, and does this in his own words to God, his own prayer of praise and petition. David knows God is present, that there is no separation between himself and God.

Ask yourself as the day quiets down: where did I meet God today? Norfleet suggests that we make this reflection our evening prayer. It takes practice to focus on God's presence in the day. Norfleet offers part of a Celtic Christian prayer which can help us to think about the closeness of God in our day. It goes like this:

The place I call home is where my heart is at rest. And my heart is most at rest when it turns to God in prayer. So wherever I pray is home.

My prayer for you is that you see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living, in whichever way God reveals it to your heart.

HELLO
SPRING

The trees are swaying,
leaves so green,
The best of spring
I've ever seen!
The flowers bloom,
the grass is tall,
I love this season,
it's the best of all!
A handprint from me,
warm and true,
Just to say I love you!
Let's enjoy the days
so bright,
Together in the springtime light.

Little by little, I let go of loss...
but never of our love

PET OF THE MONTH

Name of employee and department...

Emily Strohl, Life Enrichment

Type of animal/ breed...

Dog. Golden Retriever & Yellow Lab mix.

How old is your pet?

He is 10 years old.

Pet's name, how did you come up with it?

Beetee. He was named after a character from in the movie "The Hunger Games."

Are there any nicknames for your pet?

Bee, Beeters, and Beetee Bee.

How and when did you choose your pet?

Beetee is a service dog for my best friend's sister, Belle. Belle was in need of some extra help so we had a fund raiser to cover the travel expenses to get Beetee here from Ohio.

Does your pet have any special tricks?

He was trained to be a behavioral disruption and medical alert dog. He is able to tell us when a blood sugar is too high or too low. He is also able to track down someone just by their scent. We can hide from him and he will find us.

Funniest memory of your pet...

Being a service dog, he is able to go into theme parks. He met Donald Duck at Epcot in Disney World and was so nervous he peed everywhere.

Does your pet have a favorite toy or treat?

He loves stuff animals. We call them his "babies" cause he will walk around with one in his mouth. He also loves ice cubes as a treat.

Does your pet have any bad/ naughty habits that drive you crazy?

He is know for stealing food off the counter. Plus if you have food, he is always by your side to see if you drop any crumbs. He doesn't miss a morsel.

Fun facts about your pet or the breed...

Beetee knows a lot of commands such as giving high fives, fist bumps and even hugs. He also is the most loveable dog you will ever meet.

(If you would like to see your pet in the Cedarbrook newsletter, please stop by the Life Enrichment Department to pick up a pet questionnaire.

Please be prepared to email pictures of your pet to: MarnieDistasio@lehighcounty.org.)

BLUEBERRY- LEMON CINNAMON ROLL BREAKFAST BAKE

INGREDIENTS

- ½ cup powdered sugar
- 2 cups fresh blueberries
- 2 tablespoons grated lemon zest
- 1 package (8 oz) cream cheese, softened
- 1 can (17.5 oz) refrigerated Pillsbury™ Grands!™ Cinnamon Rolls with Original Icing (5 Count)

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1 - Heat oven to 350°F. Spray 13x9-inch (3-quart) baking dish with cooking spray.
- 2 - In large microwavable bowl, microwave cream cheese and powdered sugar uncovered on High 30 to 60 seconds, stirring after 30 seconds, until softened. Stir until smooth. Stir in blueberries and 1 tablespoon of the lemon zest.
- 3 - Separate dough into 5 rolls; return icing to refrigerator. Cut each roll into 6 pieces; stir into berry mixture. Spoon and arrange in baking dish.
- 4 - Bake 34 to 38 minutes or until bubbling around edges and dough is baked through in center. Cool 10 minutes. Transfer reserved icing to small bowl, stir in remaining 1 tablespoon lemon zest. Spoon icing mixture into small resealable food-storage plastic bag; partially seal bag. Cut off tiny corner of bag; squeeze bag to pipe over top of breakfast bake. Serve warm.

Residents' Council Meeting Minutes Thursday, April 9, 2026

- Jude Tonzola, President, called the Residents' Council meeting to order.
- Minutes from March's Residents' Council meeting were read by Patricia Stuber, Secretary.
- Patricia Stuber read the list of the new, deceased and discharged residents since March 12th through today.
- Elizabeth Landis, Council Vice President, read The Resident's Right for April.

Grievance— You have the right to object to any treatment or care which has been furnished as well as that which has not been furnished, with the assurance that there will be no reprisals for voicing your grievances, which must be resolved promptly and fairly. If the need should arise, you may choose to be represented by an attorney.

➤ Old Business:

- Referrals from last Residents' Council Meeting regarding resident's concerns were reviewed by Heidi Heffelfinger. A resident had a question with a referral response. The Nursing department will review this concern with the individual resident.

➤ New Business:

- Heidi Heffelfinger, Council Liaison, reminded residents that they can reach out to their local ombudsman, at anytime, to share with them any concerns or questions you may have. Also if any residents feel like they need more help than what we are providing here at Cedarbrook.
- Tara Pendrak, ADON, shared that if any resident are interested in feeding the fish in the pond please let your social worker or the Admin department know so you can be added to the list when the fish feeding begins.

➤ Residents Concern/Comments:

- A resident had a concern about the speed of the elevator doors opening and closing. The resident feels the doors of the elevator closes too quickly. There doesn't seem to be enough time to get in or get off.
  - A referral will be sent to the proper department.
- Residents from different stations had a concern about the time it takes for staff to answer the call bells. The residents feel it is not the staff, but the limited number of staff on the stations.
  - A referral will be sent to the proper department.

➤ Announcements:

Michelle Julian- Asst. Administrator

- A new dryer for the residents has been ordered and we are waiting for delivery. The resident laundry is located on station 1.
- The nursing stations remodeling project will tentatively begin on April 20th. We will start with station 4.
- April is Occupational Therapy month. Michelle thanked all of the staff in the Occupational Therapy Department.
- Reminded that Mothers Day is coming before our next meeting, Michelle shared with all the Mothers, a Happy Mothers Day.
- We will start updating the Main Dining Room. We will first start with removing the wallpaper and repainting. Residents will be voting on the color at this meeting. They have 3 colors to choose from.

Jason Cumello – Administrator

- Update on the E-wing project. Construction is going very well the drywall is being hung, things are moving along great.
- Once the Main Dining Room work is complete, we can go back to gathering and sharing meals here again.

Jessica Kelly—Asst. Director of Life Enrichment

- Jessica went over the activities for the remainder of the month of April.
- Activity calendars are available to all residents on the back of the Hillside News.
- The work being done in the Main Dining Room will affect all of the activities. LE staff will only have access to one side of the Main Dining Room. Please be patient during this time. At times, some of our activities may have a capacity limit.
- Life Enrichment staff will start a list of residents to go on fishing trips. If you would like to go, please let your LE staff know.

➤ Conclusion:

- The next Residents' Council Meeting will be held on May 14th, 2026 at 2:30pm in the Main Dining Room.
- Residents were invited to attend the Food Committee Meeting immediately following Residents' Council.

This Is Memorial Day

*This is Memorial Day
In our land of the free.
It's because of those who sacrificed
Whose graves you're here to see.
They fought on foreign lands
And across the open sea,
And paid the ultimate price
To keep you and I free.
So put all things aside
And honor this important day,
Which we have dedicated
As our Memorial Day.*
